

MORAY

RIOTER

STORIES FROM THE SHADOWS

The Rioter character stems from a tale dating back to 1847 which encapsulates the notion of tension and discontent within the society of Moray at that time.

*A local injustice
The townsfolk amass
Ne'er summon the fury
O'a fisher lass*

Share your story

#MyMorayStory

MORAYSGREATPLACES.COM

DID YOU KNOW...

■ The Battle of Kingston Beach is the story of the aftermath of a number of poor harvests. The people of Moray were desperately hungry and all along the Moray coast, ships were loaded with grain.

■ The locals approached the captain to purchase some grain, but their request was declined. As tensions grew, they demanded that they left some grain. When the captain once again refused, one woman's enraged response was to punch him and throw him into the sea!

1. Findhorn Heritage Centre

2. Location of Meal Riots

3. Lossiemouth

4. Battle of Kingston Beach

5. Buckie Fishing Heritage Centre

6. Cullen Riot Location