

MORAY

ILLICIT STILLER

STORIES FROM THE SHADOWS

Once the hub of Scotland's illicit whisky trade, the hills of Moray previously disguised a complex web of activity. The sites of secret whisky bothies are still being discovered today.

*An underground network
To deliver a dram
Here's to freedom an' whisky
To the distillery man*

Share your story

#MyMorayStory

MORAYSGREATPLACES.COM

DID YOU KNOW...

- The bothies were located so as to give the stillers the best view of any approaching excise men that might be on the hunt for them.
- The Cabrach was at the heart of the illicit whisky trade which not only supported the local economy but also strengthened and united the communities of Moray.

1. Dallas Dhu
Historic Distillery
2. Speyside Cooperage
3. Cardhu Distillery
4. Macallan Distillery
5. Dufftown
Whisky Museum
6. www.cabrachtrust.org
7. Tomintoul & Glenlivet
Discovery Centre